ON POINT
MARKETING AGENCY

DRESS CODE – LEAD GENERATION AMBASSADOR

Proper attire, good hygiene and an overall good appearance is a matter of company pride. We are engaging clients in a face-to-face manner and must maintain a professional appearance, for the credibility of our company as well as that of our Alliance Partners. You are required to have appropriate professional attire on when engaged in company business as well as addressing and greeting the public.

Approved Attire:

- Solid black polo/collared shirt, sweater or professional looking top. No T-shirts of any kind.
- Shirts must be free of any designs or print.
- Black slacks or dress pants. No jeans.
- Comfortable clean black shoes that are not of an excessive design and does not exceed more than 2" in height.

The following are not permissible at any time:

- Open toed shoes or sandals, as they can be health hazard.
- Undergarments cannot be exposed at any time.
- Excessive or viewable tattoos must be covered appropriately.
- No Excessive jewelry or piercings will be allowed at any time.

If the afore determined dress code is not complied with, the Lead Generation Brand Ambassador will be asked to relinquish said shift. Failure to comply with the Lead Generation Brand Ambassador dress code will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination.